BASKETBALL TEAM ALL SET FOR OPENER

Johns Hopkins First Opponent of Season, January 3, 1922, at Coliseum Rink.

RESERVES HAVE SCHEDULE

Dancing To Be Held After Game;
Floor Has Been Much Improved;
Big Crowds Expected.

Basketball, king of the winter sports, is getting into full swing and the Hatchettes will open the local season Monday evening, January 3, at the Central Coliseum, Ninth and Pennsylvania Avenue, against the Johns Hopkins Medical School quint.

Two Games and a Dance.

It is planned to make the opening fray a big affair and start the 1922 basketball season with a blaze of glory. There will be two basketball games, the varsity game and one between two excellent independent quints. An orchestra will be on hand so both spectators and players may "shake the light fantastic" after the games.

Practice has been going on every evening at the Central High School gym and will continue during the holidays at the big floor at the Central Coliseum from 5 to 7, so that an excellent aggregation may be expected to represent G. W. U. against the Marylanders.

Players Show Good Form.

Bitter scrimmages have been held every evening between the first and the second teams and each are getting into prime form. At the forward positions Earle Chesney, Felix Altrap and C. B. Annuario have been showing good form and accuracy for the first team, while "Goody" Gosnell, Jones and McMillan have forced the varsity guards to their utmost.

At the center of the court Bryant Grove for the first team and Francis Brown for the second have shown speed and clever passing.

Capt. Jack Dally and J. E. Stewart seemed to be the best of the guards, although Goldstein, "Bob" Newby and "Dutch" Held have the basket well covered for the reserve five.

"Shorty" Spears and John Eisinger of last year's squad and "Dinty" Hughes of gridiron fame have reported for practices and should be valuable additions to the squad.

Two Teams in Prospect.

Coach Bryan Morse announces he will carry a squad of 14 men, several of whom shall form the varsity team, and the others shall form a reserve quint, which will have a schedule of its own and from which will be drawn basketball players to fill vacancies in the varsity.

TO REPRESENT G. W. AT N. Y. CONFERENCE

Bryan Morse has been appointed by President Hodgkins to represent George Washington University at the National Intercollegiate Athletic Association conference to be held at New York in the Hotel Astor on January 27 and 28, 1922.

Practically every college in the United States will be represented at this conference, which annually considers the latest problems which confront the colleges in regard to athletics, publications, organizations, and all college activities.

Mr. Morse goes to this conference with the idea of obtaining information as to how the student activities are run in other colleges. He expects to find some plans which may be introduced to good effect here.

G. W. GRADS AID PLAY.

G. W. graduates furnished a portion of the program of the annual reunion of the Eastern High School Alumni Association, held at that school yesterday. Prof. DeWitt C. Croissant acted as announcer of the numbers of a 7-act vaudeville bill, which included Cameron Burton, G. W. '21, in his soft-shoe dances, and Rosemary Arnold, G. W. '21, in a monologue.

MANAGERS TO MEET

Bryan Morse, Director of Student Activities, announces a meeting for all managers of athletic teams, publications and other student organizations will be held in Lisner Hall, Thursday evening, January 5, 1922, at 8 o'clock. It is of utmost importance that all managers be present.

NO ISSUE DEC. 30

There will be no issue of The University Hatchet during the week of Christmas holidays. The next issue will appear January 6, 1922.

GLEE CLUB FURNISHES MUSIC AT KEITH'S

Sings at Annual Christmas Tree Entertainment Given to Poor Children.

G. W. U. Glee Club, in cooperation with the ladies of the King-Smith studios, will furnish music for the annual Christmas tree to be given for the poor children of the city by Mr. Robbins, president-manager of Keith's Theater, and will sing at Keith's each evening of the week December 19-24 at 5 p. m.

The membership of the Glee Club this year is 39, approximately the same as that of last year, but, according to Director King-Smith, the quality of the voices, the interest and the attendance at rehearsals has improved greatly. The club has formulated tentative plans to undertake a four-day trip during March and is also considering a one-act musical comedy as a part of the concert program.

This last plan brings to the fore the need for an instrumental club as an adjunct to the vocal club. Eight men already have become members, and more are desired by Harry Sokolov, who is directing this feature of the Glee Club.

All men who sing or play an instrument should communicate either with Director King-Smith, Isaac Q. Lord, president-manager; Ronald N. Marquis, secretary-treasurer; or Harry Sokolov, director of the stringed instruments. Rehearsals are held on Thursday evenings at 8.30 in the chapel. Try-outs for soloists, both vocal and instrumental, will be held.

WRESTLERS OBTAIN CAPT. CRAIG AS COACH

Manager Hatcher of the George Washington wrestling team reports this branch of sport is booming and he hopes soon to have a strong team of grapplers on the mat. Several colleges, among which are Virginia, University of Ohio, and Gallaudet, are negotiating for matches, and a strong schedule seems assured.

At a recent try-out, several new men showed up especially well, Corbin and Boyd in the middleweight class, and May, Hundley and Bruce in the lesser weights.

Capt. Craig of the United States Marine Corps has expressed his willingness to put the men in shape for the coming season, and his acquisition assures excellent coaching for the team. Capt. Craig is a professional wrestler, who has done a lot to put the Penn State team on the map. It is possible he will be assisted by Joe Grant, a local mat man.

Practice is to be held during the holidays and candidates are urged to get in touch with Hatcher, Room 505 Y. M. C. A.

GAY SPANISH COSTUMES BRIGHTEN CLUB DANCE

Brilliant touches of color in costumes reminiscent of old Spain, vocal and instrumental selections of Spanish origin, and dancing of a more modern order featured "La Fiesta de Flores," given by El Circulo Espanol Friday evening, December 16.

Theresa Pyle sang "La Patida," by Alvarez, to an accompaniment by Catharine Hough, and, through the courtesy of Gaudiosa P. Palomar, the gathering was favored with a selection of Spanish classical music by Prof. Jose Paez. There was much applause after each of these numbers, and many expressions of genuine appreciation of the music. Dancing held sway throughout the evening and during an intermission a flashlight photograph was taken of the assemblage to be inserted in The Cherry Tree. The faculty was represented by Prof. and Mrs. G. K. Patison.

PLAYERS MEET TONIGHT.

This evening, when the G. W. Players are scheduled to meet, President Nagle intends to lay before them an outline of his plans for the year. The scope of activities will necessarily be narrowed this year, due to the musical comedy which is slated for Senior Week late in May, and the Glee Club, which is participating in the Junior Week program in February. Nevertheless, Mr. Nagle has some plans to disclose which will surely prove feasible, so that the inroads of these other clubs will not be a material hindrance.

THE "GHOST" SUPPRESSED

300 Copies of Publication Reach
Buyers Before Order Ended
Distribution.

COUNCIL TAKES NO ACTION

Independent Enterprise Is Present
Status of Venture; Council to Intervene "Board of Spirits."

The "Ghost," George Washington's humorous monthly, was suppressed Wednesday afternoon when it was put on sale, upon advice of President Howard L. Hodgkins, Director of Student Activities. Bryan Morse notified the editor and business manager of the "Ghost" that the sale of the publication was to be discontinued, and further advertising of the sale stopped.

According to reports, some 300 copies had been printed and disposed of within an hour of coming off the press.

Arthur Nail and Albert Musher, editor and business manager, received the following communication from Director Morse:

"Upon advice of President Howard L. Hodgkins, I hereby notify you that the 'Ghost' issue for Christmas is to be suppressed and that advertisement for the same is to be immediately discontinued."

The "Ghost" was started last year along the lines of other college humorous monthly papers. It has been financing itself independent of student activity funds and was recently turned over to the Student Council to be recognized as a regular student activity.

At a meeting of the Student Council Wednesday night there was considerable discussion as to the suppression of the "Ghost." The council decided to take no action as the publication was not a recognized student activity.

The council asked to have the question of the adoption of the "Board of Spirits" appear to talk over the question of the adoption of the publication as a regular activity.

TO STAGE G. W. STUNT AT CENTRAL HIGH REUNION

George Washington's football sing, "Buff and Blue," will be carried to foreign halls of learning and heard by students of scores of universities of this country during the Christmas holidays, when a number of Hatchettes will sing it at the annual reunion of the Central High School Alumni Association, to be held at Central High Tuesday, December 27, at 8 p. m.

Students from more than a dozen other universities will also render the songs of their alma maters at the function. Harry Sokolov, G. W. Law '21, and author of the song, probably will accompany the G. W. representatives, as well as furnish the orchestra for the dancing of the evening.

AWARD COACH QUIGLEY LETTER.

Coach Quigley of the football squad was awarded an honorary G. W. by the Student Council in recognition of his excellent work, at a meeting last Wednesday. It was due almost entirely to his efforts that the past season was so successful.

25, V. M. I., at Lexington.
28, Catholic U., at Brookland.

SCHOOL TO BE DESERTED AS STUDES, PROFS. REST

Frats Plan Social Events; Some May Make Up Studies.

The well-worn walks along G Street leading to George Washington University will soon be deserted. For three months they have felt the strain of the hundreds of students scuffling over them while going to and from classes. But now they will seem desolate.

But why this lull? Well, Christmas is here and with it the welcome holidays. Books are to be deserted for the time and the more serious things of university life are to be forgotten for a few days while the students share the joys of the Christmas season.

There will be a lull in the social life of the University. No social events of any importance will take place, although the fraternities are planning some good times. Many of the students will spend the holidays with the home folks back in the States; many have homes in the District, while many will do their daily routine work about the office and think of the past Yuletides when they, too, were enjoying the holidays with their loved ones.

Numerous students will find an opportunity to catch up with some of their studies which may have been neglected. Others will attend the theaters and feast on pictures and drama which, through lack of time, may have been denied them.

Yet whatever diversion the students may find, there will be a general feeling that the holidays are the one great event of the season. They offer relief from the steady grind of University work and afford the students a chance to look from their pages and see there is something else in this life besides books.

And the professors. They, too, welcome the holidays. They will forget the lecture room, throw aside their usual dignity, and be children once more.

There is a revolution of joy throughout the land. Santa Claus is the cause of it all. Yet we do not blame him. Hurrah for a merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

COLLIER WISHES ALL A MERRY CHRISTMAS

In a letter just received at the University from Sanitago, Dr. William Miller Collier, the American Ambassador to Chile and until recently president of the University, sends his best wishes for a merry Christmas and a happy New Year to each and every one of the members of the University.

WANTED!

An energetic person who can develop and print snapshots. An attractive opportunity for an ambitious person to make The Cherry Tree Staff. See Karl Peterson, Editor of The Cherry Tree, 2023 G Street Northwest.

With assets in excess of liabilities and more than $16,000 expended for student activities for last year, the report of the Director of Student Activities, Bryan Morse, is presented in The Hatchet today for the information of George Washington University students. The Director has submitted his report to the President, the Board of Managers, and the Student Council.

The business of student activities amounted to $16,602.87 and included the support of 12 recognized organizations in the University and was built up from student activity pledges amounting to $12,673.88.

Football, basketball, women's athletics, tennis, debate, the Glee Club, track, The University Hatchet, The Cherry Tree, swimming, the rifle club, freshman baseball, wrestling, and the carnival were entirely supported or underwritten by the student activity fund.

A large deficit is reported in The Cherry Tree of last year. The Hatchet reports assets, as does The Cherry Tree, while there is still a sum of money collectable from student pledges of last year.

The failure of 208 students to pay their pledges, a mistake in the student activity fund balance by the Treasurer's office and the failure of the student activity fund to participate in the receipts of the Catholic University-George Washington game last year by reason of a change in the time and place of playing the game by the Board of Trustees, are ascribed as reasons why a balance was not declared.

G. W. MUSICAL COMEDY MAKES RAPID STRIDES

Leading Roles Are Cast; Instructor Secured to Teach Stage Dancing.

Rapid strides are being made with the G. W. U. Musical Comedy, which will be produced at a local theater early in the spring.

The leads were selected at the last rehearsal, Tuesday evening. "Jo" Houston will play "Louise," the title role. She will share headline honors with Irving Botman. Charles Palmer and Edward Wheeler will take the leading comedy parts. Emma Tom Fusch and Robert Baker have been selected for the cast.

Four try-outs have been held and a tentative chorus has been chosen. There will be thirty in the dancing chorus and an opportunity is afforded for more candidates to join the competition.

Rehearsals will be resumed immediately upon return from the vacation. All candidates for the dancing chorus will report to Director William S. Becker in the chapel of Lisner Hall, Wednesday at 8 p. m. An instructor has been secured to teach the chorus stage dancing, so it is imperative that every candidate should be present.

"The musical comedy has stimulated a great deal of interest on the campus and there is no reason why it should not go over big," Director Becker declared recently. "Candidates must not permit their interest to lag. Conscientious and consistent work will be absolutely necessary."

VA. LEGAL CLUB MEETS.

The initial meeting of the Virginia Legal Club was held in the alumni room of the Law School December 13 with about 15 students from the Old Dominion in attendance. A temporary organization was perfected with Ashley Bladen as chairman, looking forward to a permanent organization at a meeting to be held after the holidays. All Virginia students and all who expect to practice there are invited to join the State law club.

ORGANIZATIONS, NOTE!

The Student Council wishes to call to the attention of the 39 organizations of the University the fact that it is necessary for all societies to notify the council of their coming social events, in order that they may receive its official sanction. These notices should be forwarded to Glenn Corbett, of the council, to be included in a calendar of social events which he is preparing. Response to this notice is imperative.

Christmas Greetings

Yuletide is upon us and we are imbued with the joyous spirit of holiday. Let us take advantage of this period in participating in all the pleasures which it affords, erasing the wrinkles of work and study that have been stamped upon us during these past few months. Let us not, however, follow the theory of the bard who said that "the only man who needs a vacation is the man who has just returned from one" by participating in joyous dissipation, but employ this recess as a period of rest in preparation for harder and better work when we return. The Hatchet wishes to the President of our University, the Trustees, faculty and students a merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

Participation In School Events

If a person esteems the name of a university to the extent that he is proud to follow its course of study and receive its degree he should be glad of the opportunity to take part in all social events or other activities given under its name. The university is a composite whole or body having its students as its molecules, and is known by the character of its activities which are given under its name.

In George Washington, students are widely separated in schools and habitat and large social affairs seem to be the best method of coercing intercourse. General opinion pointed last year that there were too many social events of medium caliber, and it is the intention of the Director of Student Activities this year to have fewer but to run them on a larger scale, better representative of the size and name of our University.

When these events are given, it is the duty of every one of us to attend. The claim by some students that they can go to other dances and have as good time for less money is proof of their unappreciation for the University. A student who is able to attend these events and refuses is undeserving of calling himself a George Washington student, but merely taking a few courses provided under our curriculum. If we follow this method of giving fewer social events during the year which every student attends, we can "pull off" some of the biggest social affairs given by any university in this country, and some that we can fondly remember after our college days.

STUDENT SLAVE SAYS:

Inasmuch as I won't see you folks again till January, I wish you all a "Merry" Christmas and a "Happy" New Year.

Some of these birds around school must have thought their textbooks were Christmas presents—you know, "Don't open till Xmas."

Happy thought for the Xmas holidays is: RIGHT AFTER XMAS COME THE MIDYEAR EXAMS.

Why must girls hang up mistletoe? If you take advantage of it you're a "roughneck"—and if you don't, you're "painfully slow."

Now the "open season" for resolutions is on. Some of us will resolve to catch up our studies during the holidays, others will resolve not to get behind after they catch up, etc., but I have resolved not to make any resolutions—then my conscience will rest easy.

Dear Stupe: Please tell me why they took a picture of Dean Wilbur's rhetoric class?

Dear Anxious: It has been found by actual experience that this is the most efficient way to take class attendance. To call the roll and by taking a photograph he can study the faces that appear and check them up at his leisure. I hope this explains everything.

Dear Mr. Stephan: Please tell what vintage is Prof. Hankin's Ford?

Dear Worried: It would have been much better for me if you had asked him, but I have found that it is the vintage of 1922. However, if allowed to stand, it will turn mellow (not yellow) with age.

CHAPEL SERVICES HELD.

Three times weekly there is offered to George Washington Students an opportunity to join in a short but interesting service in honor of the Higher Being to whom we all pay reverence.

Services held in the chapel at 12:20 noon on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays are under the general supervision of Prof. Charles S. Smith. On Mondays the service is in charge of the Women's University Club; on Wednesdays it is under the direction of Dean Wilbur; and on Fridays various members of the faculty will be leaders. Wilmer T. Bartholomew is in charge of the musical program.

Marion R. Malone conducted the chapel services Monday, December 13, and another student leader is Philip C. Edwards.

ENGINEERS HOLD FEED.

The Engineering Society last Monday night spent an enjoyable evening in two parts. The curtain opener was a "bang-up" supper served by several Columbian girls and the follow-up act was staged in the physics lecture room, being composed of two speeches, one by Mr. Strock of the Bureau of Standards on the subject of the "Uses of Radio," the other by Mr. Wolf of the Bureau of Public Roads, on the subject of road-testing. Following these two interesting talks Mr. Lanigan, president of the society, introduced the subject of pictures for The Cherry Tree, whereupon it was decided to take a group picture of the society.

JUNIOR ENGINEERS ELECT.

Last but not least, the Junior Engineers have held their elections, at which Walter Free was elected president, A. H. Kampe, vice president, C. O. Wolf secretary, Daniel Lloyd treasurer, and I. Polk sergeant at arms. On motion of the newly elected treasurer, the class decided on 25 cents class dues.

HE DID.

NEXT YEAR'S FOOTBALL SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

Hopkins, Catholic University, Georgetown, Maryland Met at Home.

Football plans for George Washington 1922 season are already under way and practically a complete schedule has been announced. The season starts off with the strong University of Virginia team at Charlottesville, Va., and among other strong teams to be met are Johns Hopkins, University of Maryland, Catholic University, and Georgetown. The schedule follows:

Sept. 30—University of Virginia, at Charlottesville.
Oct. 7—Hamden Sidney, at home (pending).
Oct. 14—Johns Hopkins, at Baltimore.
Oct. 21—St. John's College, at Annapolis, Md.
Oct. 28—University of Maryland, at home.
Nov. 4—Gallaudet, at Gallaudet (pending).
Nov. 11—Catholic University.
Nov. 18—Virginia Military Institute, at home.
Nov. 30—Georgetown.

GIRLS' HOLD REGULAR BASKETBALL PRACTICES

Girl basketballers now hold practice meets regularly on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 1.30 to 3 in Epiphany Church gym, G Street, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth, and so far, under the direction of Coach Martha McGrew, good-sized groups have turned out. Eight girls were present Thursday, December 8, while on Tuesday, December 13, twelve attended. Another practice meet was held at the same place Tuesday evening, in charge of Coach Gantt, and was attended by fifteen girls.

An innovation in the basketball system is announced by Manager Daisy Robison. Starting this year, she states, the girls will be supplied with bloomers and socks from the student activities fund, and many are expected to take advantage of the opportunity to come out.

CHRISTMAS DANCE PLANNED FOR NURSES

If you asked the student nurses at G. W. U. "Why is Christmas?" you'd get many cheerful answers. Homcoming plans are on foot and many anxious nurses are awaiting eagerly the parting moment for boarding the train that is to speed them to home, Christmas dinner, and the reunion with old friends. But some nurses must stay on duty. To the casual observer, Christmas for them will be smiling a little harder and administering a little more cheerfully to make Christmas for the invalids a little less tedious. These nurses will tell you that service to their patients will bring them a Christmas cheer few others will know.

The Lady Board, always the Good Samaritan at the Nurses Home, has announced a Christmas dance for the nurses on December 29. Decorations, music and eats are being planned with the idea of making the Christmas spirit keenly felt.

THETA LAMBDA SIGMA HONORED WITH CHARTER

Alpha Delta Pi, one of the oldest sororities in the country, has honored George Washington by granting a charter to Theta Lambda Sigma. Theta Lambda Sigma was the first local sorority in the Pan-Hellenic Association. The installation of the chapter will take place some time in January.

GIRL SWIMMERS PROGRESS.

Girl swimmers will not hold their usual meet today, due to the inability of Coach Woodford to be present. So far the girls have been enthusiastic, turning out in large numbers and exhibiting unusual ability. Most noteworthy of these was Miss Carrie Robertson, whose remarkable fancy dives and crawl strokes attracted wide notice, while others showed aptitude along individual lines.

Announcement is made that pictures of the team for The Cherry Tree must be taken before January 15. All girls intending to join are urged to do so immediately, that space reservations for the team as a whole may be made without delay.

NURSES SAVE TUITION; 35 ENROLLED AT G. W. U.

At the George Washington University School for Nurses, which functions in conjunction with the University Hospital, instruction, home, board, laundry and medical care, as well as a salary of $12 per month, is the lot of the student nurse. In addition to the above-mentioned, on graduation she also receives at the completion of her course $108 in addition.

There are now 35 nurses in attendance, and a class of 13 was graduated last year. The course offered is three

AS THEY HAD SEEN IT.

The mother entered the nursery and with surprise said: "Why, children, why do you sit about looking so solemn and unhappy? Why not play a game of some sort?"

"We are playing," answered the little daughter. "We're playing we're grown-up ladies making a call."

INCREASED ENROLLMENT AGAIN REPORTED FOR G. W.

Enrollment in George Washington University is increasing by leaps and bounds. Figures computed on a yearly basis show the total number of students up to December 6, 1920, as having been 3,375, while the number for the same date this year is 3,881, an increase of 506 over the previous year.

While there is in Columbian and Teachers Colleges a ratio of 8 to 6 in favor of women, this is offset by the large overbalancing of men in the Law, Medical and Engineering Colleges. This makes an average, in all the University, of approximately 5 men to 3 women.

The large increase of students each year at George Washington University can be attributed, in part at least, to its proximity to the various departments of the Government, and also to the evening classes, which make it possible for office holders to attend the college.

CONDUCTS EXPERIMENT.

Mr. Crandle, civil engineer of the Barrett Coal Tar Company of New York, gave a very interesting talk and demonstration, accompanied by slides, on coal tar, its by-products and uses, to the Chemical Society on Friday, December 16.

One of the experiments which Mr. Crandle was performing ran over, exploded, destroying the apparatus and filling the room with soot. The explosion was due to the impure tar which was used. When tar is heated which contains water it boils over and sets everything in its path on fire. Fortunately no real damage was done.

MEDICAL SOCIETY MEETS.

The George Washington University Medical Society held a meeting on December 17, 1921, at the Medical School in hall No. 1 at 8 o'clock. The meeting was addressed by Dr. Edmund J. Horgan, who read a paper on "Surgery of the Pancreas." Dr. Oliver C. Cox made two case reports on the subject of ulcers treated by cautery and closure without gastro-enterostomy.

Three new members were voted into the society, Dr. Edmund J. Horgan, Dr. Herbert P. Ramsey, and Dr. J. E. McKenzie. Following the program a smoker was held.

ENGINEERS DISCUSS PLANS FOR SENIOR DAY

Richard Campbell, president of the Senior Engineers, states that his class has made plans for consulting with the senior classes of the other colleges with respect to the part each is to play in Senior Day, an event which will take place in the spring. The matter of graduation invitations and the design for the class pin also received consideration by the engineers, and will be taken up later by all of the classes. The first Monday of each month has been selected as the regular meeting date of the class, at which time further plans will be made. There are about 20 senior engineers this year.

JUNIOR TEACHERS DANCE.

The Christmas season was fittingly ushered in Saturday, December 17, with a dance given by the Junior Teachers at 1812 N Street Northwest. Myrtle Yost, the Junior Teachers' president, had charge of the affair. The attendance was large, the decorations attractive, and the music "peppy." The success of the dance makes it desirable to plan for monthly affairs of a similar nature.

LAW JUNIORS DANCE.

The Junior Law Class held its first social entertainment of this season December 16 in the form of a dance at the Sigma Phi Epsilon house. Music was furnished by Sokolov's orchestra. Dean and Mrs. Ferson were present during the evening and were tendered an informal reception.

HEARD THROUGHOUT THE COLLEGIATE WORLD

Kansas U.
Two hundred and thirty-three freshmen of Kansas University have been placed on probation as a result of a failure in one or more subjects.

Washington U.
The "Sun Dodger," comic of Washington University, has received permission to print a satire on the "Literary Digest," to be published some time in December.

Princeton U.
Princeton's Glee Club has received an offer for a three weeks' tour of the Canal Zone next June. All expenses will be paid by the Canal Zone Commission of the Government.

U. of Cincinnati.
A scholarship honor system has been adopted by the University of Cincinnati to go into effect immediately. At the middle of the semester names of the students who are the four highest in each class will be sent to the registrar by the instructor. These names will appear on the honor list.

ENOSINIANS REELECT OFFICERS AT MEETING

At an enthusiastic meeting of the Enosinian Society Monday evening, December 19, at which more than 25 persons were present, plans were made for restoring the Enosinian to the place of prominence which it formerly held. Programs are to be arranged with a view not only to drawing out the latent literary qualities of the members but also to make the sessions enjoyable as entertainments, according to President Spoerri.

Owing to a violation of a technicality in the constitution the election of the first meeting was considered void; all officers present, however, were re-elected, the new officers being Edith L. Elliott, vice president, and Edward Scheuffler, secretary.

Space for pictures and representation of the society in The Cherry Tree was decided upon. A program committee of Edith Elliott, Edward Scheuffler, Waldo Girdner and Kirk Mears was appointed.

The next meeting will be on January 9 in the room back of the chapel in Lisner Hall, and a discussion of "Main Street" by Sinclair Lewis will feature the program. All students are requested to attend not only for its literary qualities but also for its thoroughly enjoyable features.

RABBIT HOLE CLOSING DURING XMAS HOLIDAYS

Announcement of the close of the Rabbit Hole during the holidays will be a blow to any who will have to do business at the University from December 23 to the unlucky January 3, when the student body will return from their Christmas vacation. It is announced many specials will greet the students upon their return from the Christmas vacation.

FROSH MIXER SUCCESS.

Pep, good-nature, and good music marked the Frosh mixer held in Lisner Hall last Monday. The floors and walls of the chapel groaned and creaked under the weight and bumps of more than 200 hoof and shove artists. "It's a whale," exclaimed a soph, whose opinion was backed by "Babe" Fly's "Some party."

The first feature on the program was dancing, and when the trombone gave its most prolonged screech at 11:45 there was still dancing. As before hinted, there was a little crowding, but this only put the mix in the mixer. The freshman-sophomore truce was strictly abided by, and neither eggs nor windows were broken.

PUBS. TO GIVE DANCE.

Big preparations for a publications dance at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon house, 3320 Sixteenth Street, January 7, 1922, are being made by the social committee. Oehmann's orchestra, which supplied the music for the last Hatchet dance and the sophomore mixer, has been secured. Excellent refreshments have been planned.

All the members of The Hatchet, The Cherry Tree, and the Ghost staffs are urged to be present. Tickets may be obtained from the social committee, composed of Allan Coe, Mary Brown, Douglas Clephane, Elizabeth Whitfield, and Robert Bolton, for the price of $1.

UNIV. ACQUIRES PROPERTY.

Rumors to the effect there is danger of losing the property at Twenty-first and G Streets recently bequeathed to the University by the late Col. Maxwell Van Zandt Woodhull are absolutely unfounded, according to President Howard L. Hodgkins, who stated that Charles Van Zandt, son of the deceased, is making efforts to turn the property over to the University as soon as possible. Plans for the use of the building will be announced shortly after Christmas, stated President Hodgkins.

G. W. U. RIFLEMEN WIN MATCH OVER NATIONAL CAPITAL'S INDOOR TEAM

Shooting like the championship team they hope to become, the Hatchette squad defeated the National Capital Rifle Club's crack indoor team. The shooting took place in the National Guard Armory, Fifth and L Streets Northwest, last Saturday night. Seven men fired on each team, over the 75-foot range, in both prone and standing positions, W. R. Stokes, as usual, leading all in the individual scores.

The prize on this match was a round of drinks, to be paid for by the losers. A razor scrap, which was going on in the alley behind the armory, added atmosphere to the occasion, the men shooting amidst the thunder of guns and the screeches and howls of guns carved negroes.

The line-up of the teams was as follows: George Washington—W. R. Stokes, G. R. Trimble, Hugh Everett, Jr., H. C. Espey, J. M. Barry, Baxter Smith, J. R. Greeley; National Capital—R. H. MacGarity, Capt. H. H. Leizear, R. C. Stokes, Lieut. F. W. Corwin, Lieut. S. A. Morgan, R. G. Fletcher, Sergt. J. C. Jensen.

After the first six men had fired the teams were tied with 1055 each, but Stokes, G. W.'s last man, making the highest individual score, 194, beat the National Capital's last man, R. G. Fletcher, by 14 points, giving the Hatchettes the match.

The high individual scores were: George Washington—W. R. Stokes, 194; G. R. Trimble, 188; Hugh Everett, Jr., 188. National Capital—R. H. MacGarity, 188; Capt. H. H. Leizear, 187; R. C. Stokes, 184; R. G. Fletcher, 180.

TWELVE ARE SUCCESSFUL IN DEBATING TRY-OUTS

Five minutes. Alas, how short is such a period when one must convince a judge of his powers of oratory, his ability to argue, his ability to present cold facts. Yet this was all the time allotted to each of the 21 men who reported to the Law School last Friday evening to try out for the teams which will be used in the triangular debate between George Washington, Swarthmore and West Virginia.

The subject was: "Resolved, That the United States should adopt a sales tax on the final turnover of consumable goods." This will also be the subject of the triangular debate.

The judges for the evening were Prof. S. C. Collier (chairman), Prof. Gilbert Hall, Prof. Spaulding, of the Law School, and Paul E. Shorb, a graduate of the Law School. Paul E. Shorb will be coach of the teams which will participate in the triangular debate. He is a graduate of North Dakota University, where he obtained his B. A. in 1917, and of the G. W. Law School, where he received his LL. B. with distinction, in February, 1920. At present he has a position with a local law firm.

Twelve men were selected by the judges from the applicants who tried out. Of these two men are members of last year's debate team. The two old men are Maxwell and Perlin. The new men are T. D. Behne, J. B. Gilliland, J. M. Hodge, George Hughes, Leslie Jackson, M. Mussman, O. W. Osnes, E. L. Scheuffler, Oscar Zabel and Swindler.

More than ten women turned out for trial, but it was decided to postpone the women's try-outs till after the holidays. Girls interested are asked to come out to represent the school in debate.

ART CLUB TO MEET.

Prospects are bright for the "Boheme" of G. W. U., according to Winifred DeVoe, newly elected president of the Art Club. Phoebe Gates and D. Jay Culver have been appointed as a committee to investigate and report at the next meeting all their "finds" in the shape of "garrets" and "cellars" which will offer the proper Bohemian atmosphere.

Winifred DeVoe, the president, urges all devotees of art to attend the meeting to be held January 4.

NOTICE, SENIORS!

As yet only a few Seniors have turned in their personal data which is to appear with their picture in The Cherry Tree. All those graduating this year, who have not already done so, are requested to send in this information at once to The Cherry Tree, 2023 G Street Northwest.

Blanks for this purpose may be obtained at the office.

January 15 is the final date on which senior picture may be taken. No senior pictures will be admitted after this date.

Pictures may now be taken any week-day before or after Christmas, at Clinedinst's Studio, Fourteenth Street, between New York Avenue and H Street, upon the payment of two dollars at the studio.

KAPPA SIGMA MOVES.

Kappa Sigma has moved from their old house on Vermont Avenue to a house at 1758 N Street which, members say, is better suited to their needs. It is rumored that the real reason was that enough work could not be found to keep the "goats" busy, so it was decided that they could help move trunks to the new house.

COLUMBIAN WOMEN RECEIVE PRESIDENT

President and Mrs. Hodgkins were tendered a reception by the Columbian Women at the College Women's Club on Friday, December 16. The reception was attended by a company of more than 175 persons, which included the Columbian Women, members of the faculty and a goodly number of students of the University. It was in every way a success and marks a brilliant place among the functions given during the year by the members and friends of the University.

HATCHET SEEKS CENSUS.

All organizations of George Washington University are requested to send to the office of The University Hatchet as soon as possible the following information: Name of organization; purpose; name and title of presiding officer; name of secretary or person in charge of publicity; addresses and phone numbers of the above officers. This includes every organization in the school, whether it be fraternal, honorary, executive, class, or of any other nature.

The purpose of the proposed directory is to furnish the staff of The Hatchet with accurate information of the organizations of G. W. U. so that each may be given due publicity through the college paper.

STUDENT DIRECTOR'S FINANCIAL STATEMENT

*These items disbursed and vouchers turned in for same either through reports of student managers or petty cash vouchers and subject to audit by University auditor.

Director Morse reports that recommendations will be made to the Board of Managers shortly in regard to the collection of the student activity pledges and that the entire business of the student activity fund will probably be turned over and made a part of the University funds.

A committee of the Board of Trustees is working on such a scheme and it is more than likely the University Treasurer's office will be in entire charge of collections of student activity pledges, as well as the disbursements.
